

BCC Seeks New Board Members – could it be you?

If this sounds like you, please consider putting your name forward:

- Passionate about the BCC and its mission - “A strong, resilient, and healthy community strengthened through meaningful collaborations with our committed volunteer force and dedicated partners.”
- Big picture thinker – you value the long-term perspective and can help the BCC plot a course for the future with strategic thinking and planning skills. Support the implementation of our new strategic plan, with a view to meeting the needs of members and making the BCC a welcoming and inclusive environment for all.
- Willing to roll up your sleeves – this is both a governance and working advisory Board. Board members actively contribute to committees, represent the BCC at other organization’s meetings, research issues, and look for opportunities to enhance the BCC’s offerings to meet community needs.
- Keen to contribute and follow the BCC values – Respect, Inclusivity, Collaboration, Accountability and Sustainability
- Confident to share your opinions – you’ll ask thoughtful questions, make suggestions, bring new ideas and collaborate to find solutions to current challenges.
- Give back to your community – you’ll have a chance to share your experience and skills developed through your career, running your own business and/or volunteer work. In today’s environment, our Board needs people with skills in financial management, strategic planning, partnerships, and creative problem solving and volunteer recruitment.
- Ready, willing, and able – to participate in at least 9 Board meetings a year (in-person or virtually). Board meetings are held the third Tuesday of each month during the morning.

Whether you’ve served on a Board before or this would be your first experience, please let us know if you’re interested. We’re happy to put you in touch with a current Board member or the BCC Manager so you can learn more. New Board members will receive a thorough orientation. This is a volunteer position.

Please help spread the word – if you have a friend or neighbour who you think would be a good fit, please pass along this information. Any community member wishing to apply to be a BCC board member must be a current member of the BCC in good standing.
