Dear Aunt Dar,

My husband has sent you this message to my email. We just want you to know how much you and your Angels mean to us and I can't express more love for you if I tried.

Aunt Darlene, just a little note for you and the wonderful ladies who so graciously care for us while deployed. I received your packages and couldn't believe how much stuff there was...wasn't hard to tell how much thought was put into picking the items that we got...means the world to us and we are so thankful. You and the ladies are truly angels...thank you for being so caring...lots of love for you! This is being shared with all my fellow roomies. You can tell the love for coffee in this first picture.
